What are the differences in question types between these two papers?

AQA Listening F New spec 1.PDF

AQA Listening F Old spec 1.PDF

Identify trends in question types and high frequency words

Summary of Differences

- Dictation Section: The new specification includes a dictation section where students write down exactly what they hear in Spanish. This is not present in the old specification.
- Matching Good and Needs to Improve Aspects: The new specification includes questions where students match aspects of a speaker's lifestyle that are good or need improvement.
- Matching Areas to Problems: The new specification includes questions where students match areas to specific problems.
- Activity Suggestions and Matching Items: The old specification includes more questions related to suggesting activities and matching items from a list.

These differences indicate a shift towards more varied and detailed question types in the new specification, aiming to test a broader range of listening comprehension skills. If you need more detailed analysis or specific examples from the papers, feel free to ask!

Write a paragraph in Spanish on the topic of town for year 8 students - 5 sentences long Must include these grammatical structures: hay, no hay and donde se puede + infinitive and include this vocabulary: plaza, plaza de toros, zonas verdes, tiendas, ir de compras, descansar

Mi ciudad es muy bonita y tiene muchos lugares interesantes. Hay un parque grande donde puedo jugar con mis amigos. También hay una biblioteca donde me gusta leer libros. Los fines de semana, mi familia y yo vamos al cine que está en el centro. Me encanta vivir en mi ciudad porque siempre hay algo divertido que hacer.
